A Community Meeting to discuss the work of the Task Force has also been scheduled for Tuesday, November 24, 1992 at 7:30 p.m. at LeConte School, 2241 Russell Street.

The Superintendent's Task Force on School Organization is made up of representatives from the district unions, the P.T.A., and district advisory committees, members of the Berkeley Unified School District administration, and interested citizens appointed by the Board of Education. The Task Force is studying and developing policy options regarding integration, grade configuration, school zoning, magnet schools, transportation, and school size.
